

favorite finds

Stock up on these handy notions that can simplify your sewing.

Press Time

Tired of schlepping a full-size iron to classes and retreats? With an adjustable handle, four temperature settings, and a digital control pad, Dritz's Petite Press mini iron packs a lot of heat for its size. $39.99; available online at joann.com

Thread Ready

Whip up a dual-purpose pincushion that houses spools of thread as well as pins and needles. Indigo Junction's versatile pattern includes templates for four pincushion sizes and several spool sizes. $8.99; indigojunctioninc.com

Instant Binding

Let the Simplicity Bias Tape Maker create single-fold bias tape for you. Simply feed the fabric strip's end through the metal tip, and press the button. $99.99; simplicity.com

On the Mark

Sewline's Gift Set offers storage and savings for appliqué enthusiasts. The kit contains smooth-writing, water-soluble fabric pencils (including a three-in-one style); easy-to-hold glue stick pen; pencil eraser; and lead refills. $39.99; available online at fatquartershop.com

Spool Sampler

From machine piecing and quilting to hand embroidery, Aurifil offers a Kit Art Amazing Threads collection that's up to the task. Each kit features 12 colors of thread chosen by Pat Sloan, Edyta Sitar, or Marianne Byrne. $84-$99; available online at ihavea-notion.com

Easy Glide

Forget friction. Make machine quilting simpler with the Supreme Slider from LaPierre Studio. The tacky-back Teflon sheet grips your machine's sewing bed so your quilt moves effortlessly as you free-motion quilt. $29.95; freemotionslider.com

AllPeopleQuilt.com/323

Go online to discover more must-have sewing notions.

